The Rás Tailteann is Ireland's legendary and grueling bike race. It's winners are sporting icons as a result of their heroic feats. Carlow's Mike O'Donoghue won the Rás in 1973, forty years ago this year. In it's sixty one year history Mike is the only Carlow man to have won the Rás and the first in the south east to do so. With his distinctive Carlow tri-colour jersey Mike was one of the most recognisable cyclists of his era. Come to Carlow and see 'The Men of the Rás'.
